Director's Background

Nthabiseng Wendy Msimango, the Founder and Director of Prestigious Solutions (Pty) Ltd, is a dynamic professional with a solid background in Information Systems, Business Management, and IT support. She holds a Bachelor of Commerce in Information Systems and Business Management from Rhodes University and brings over five years of experience in the ICT and corporate support environment.

Before founding Prestigious Solutions, Nthabiseng served in technical and operational roles at leading organizations, where she gained hands-on experience in systems support, IT coordination, and procurement processes. Her role involved managing complex IT infrastructure, troubleshooting and support, and working closely with stakeholders to deliver secure and efficient technology solutions.

Driven by her passion for service excellence and operational efficiency, she identified the gap in the market for a supplier that offers both reliability and responsiveness — particularly in critical areas like medical consumables, ICT equipment, and office essentials.

Her leadership is grounded in problem-solving, integrity, and client focus. As a black female entrepreneur, Nthabiseng is committed to contributing meaningfully to South Africa's transformation agenda, while building a business that champions professionalism, quality, and access.
